C.P. Padmakumar Reminiscence

May 12, 2015
Kanakakunnu Palace, Trivandrum

A man who walked a unique and solitary path, C.P Padmakumar never compromised on his concepts of the art of film making.

As one for whom art and life was never separate, Padmakumar's presence was inspiring. Let us get together to share and cherish our loving memories of him.

This is also a day of remembrance of the renaissance period of Indian films and the evolution of a totally new film culture.

We are privileged to have on this occasion the esteemed presence of Sri Girish Kasaravalli, a pioneer of this movement.

Kindly grace the occasion with your presence.
